The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church are to have a "Mother's Afternoon" in the church parlor Wednesday.

A program will be given and refreshments served. Mothers may be asked for a little story or for some advice in the bringing up of children; so please be prepared.

The barber shop run by Lisle Burnham in the Ward & Douglas building, 115 South Main street, was sold at sheriff's sale yesterday to satisfy a mortgage held by A. A. Hunt. Deputy Sheriff H. J. Slattery auctioned the property and declared it sold to the holder of the mortgage.

The protracted meetings at the Evangelical church will begin this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the hall, 8 Merchant street. Evangelist Green, at present of Montpelier, will be in charge. The services are held for the promotion of the doctrines of scriptural salvation and holiness. An invitation is extended to all.

John H. Senter of Montpelier will deliver his noted address on Daniel Webster before the Layman's League of the Universalist church, Wednesday evening, Feb. 24. The Vermont state bowling league will close this week with games in Burlington on Thursday and Friday nights, both Barre teams as well as both Montpelier teams going to that city to participate. The Allens of Burlington rolled at Montpelier last night, losing two to three to the Capitals and one to four to the Pastimes. The Capitals and Crescents of this city lead the league in that order, and it looks as if they might close the season first and second, respectively, although the Crescents are only three games behind their fellow-citizens.

On Friday evening, February 26, at 8 o'clock, the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will give an entertainment which will consist of a "Talk on Japan," by Miss Mary E. Ide of St. Johnsbury. Miss Ide has lived a year in Japan and will tell of the home life, customs and characteristics of the Japanese. Some rare and interesting curios will be exhibited, including embroideries, drawn work and articles descriptive of the life of the people. Three young ladies will be dressed in Japanese costume, and a song will be given, which was written in honor of the "101 Steps Tea-house" in Yokohama.

"The Mummy and the Humming Bird" which comes to the opera house next Thursday, Feb. 25, is a society drama in four acts and has proved one of the greatest successes in years. The plot of the drama is exceptionally well drawn and is woven around the designs of a scheming, accomplished, and handsome Italian, on the wife of an English lord.

Mr. Henry H. Pemberton, who plays Lord Lumley, is one of the best leading men on the American stage. He has supported some of the most well known stars. He will have the support of a company of standard merit, including Miss Adelaide French. Nothing will be left undone to make this attraction the best of the season.
